

The Netherlands lagging behind in prescribing new cancer drugs

Twelve months after inclusion in the insurance package, use in the Netherlands is the lowest of 10 countries that participated in the study

