

Over 800 drugs and vaccines in development against COVID-19

More control over the virus through new vaccines and drugs

Medicines

means to prevent the disease that occurs as a result of a virus infection to treat.

Vaccines

for creating immunity.

Antiviral agents

agents that interact with the virus and disrupt its ability to replicate.